Practice Overview

Youcef specialises in Chambers' core practice areas, including construction & engineering, infrastructure, energy, international arbitration, and technology.

He has substantial experience with all common standard forms including JCT, NEC, FIDIC, and bespoke construction contracts, as well as PFI agreements, guarantees and bonds. He is also a contributor to Keating on Construction Contracts.

Youcef regularly represents clients in the High Court, County Court and in adjudications in his own right. Youcef has recently:

- acted as sole counsel in a one-day trial involving allegations of fraud and procuring breach of contract.
- acted as sole counsel in the High Court (TCC) on an application to enforce an adjudicator's decision, opposed on grounds of fraud.
- acted as sole counsel in the TCC successfully resisting enforcement of an adjudicator's decision in favour of an insolvent contractor on the ground that the security offered for the claimant's cross-claim was inadequate.

- acted on behalf of a public authority in a c. £10 million adjudication concerning project handover in a PFI contract (led by Sarah Hannaford KC).
- acted on behalf of a national developer in a c. £8 million adjudication concerning the reasonable settlement of a claim in relation to unsafe cladding and other fire safety defects in residential tower blocks (led by Paul Bury).
- acted on behalf of a major main contractor in an adjudication, successfully obtaining declaratory relief in relation to the allocation of risk arising from the discovery of an unforeseen steel structure (led by Tom Lazur).
- assisted Adrian Williamson KC, Paul Bury and John Steel in the Court of Appeal in relation to (1) Outotec (USA) Inc (2) Metso OYJ (formerly Metso Outotec OYJ) v MW High Tech Projects UK Limited [2024] EWCA Civ 844.
- assisted on one of the first building liability order applications due to be heard in the TCC.
- assisted on an international arbitration in relation to a desalination plant in the Middle East with a claim value in excess of $25 million.

Before coming to the Bar, Youcef studied law at the Queen's College, Oxford, graduating with a First, and was awarded a number of prizes during his time at Oxford, including the Littleton Chambers Prize in Labour Law for best performance in Finals. Prior to joining Chambers, Youcef was a non-stipendiary lecturer in Contract and Land Law at Christ Church College, Oxford and the Queen's College, Oxford, respectively.

Youcef accepts instructions to advise, draft pleadings and represent clients in relation to a broad range of commercial matters, with an emphasis upon construction, engineering, professional negligence and energy disputes.
