

Guidelines for Landscape and Visual Impact Assessment (GLVIA)

Online event :
Wednesday 10th February 2021
5.00 -6.30/7 pm

To join please click on the link at the end of this e-mail.

Programme:

Edward Hutchison ■ Introduction to the series of debates

Tom Robinson ■ How to improve on GLVIA 3

Sally Marsh ■ LVIA's and natural beauty

Jeremy Lake ■ How can we use and consider change?

Charles Banner QC ■ Reconciling GLVIA with the growth agenda: how to maximise the effectiveness of LVA/LVIA as a tool for ensuring the right development takes place in the right places

Followed by a Q&A/discussion

Speaker biographies

Edward Hutchison is an artist and landscape architect with 45 years of experience. He is author of 'Drawing for Landscape Architecture'.

Tom Robinson is a director of Robinson Landscape Design and has worked for over forty years in the UK, Europe and Far East.

Sally Marsh is Co-Director of the High Weald AONB Partnership and is currently undertaking a PhD research project into the meaning and measuring of natural beauty in public policy.

Jeremy Lake is a heritage consultant, formerly with Historic England and now amongst other things a member of the National Trust's Historic Environment Advisory Group, with a wide range of publications and a special interest in historic landscapes.

Charles Banner QC is a barrister at Keating Chambers specialising in planning and related areas, with experience of over 100 planning inquiries. He is the creator and co-presenter of 'Have We Got Planning News For You'.