	2. The ability rapidly to analyse complex and voluminous facts and materials to identify relevant points.	3	3 marks for demonstration of part 2 of the definition of the criterion. Material features arising out of the legal/factual scenario provided which demonstrate strength against the criterion have been identified and provided to markers in advance.	0 marks = weak demonstration of criterion 1 mark = satisfactory demonstration of criterion 2 marks = good demonstration of criterion 3 marks = excellent demonstration of criterion	The written case study	For the written case study, applicants are identified solely by their candidate number. Candidates are required to name their opinion file with their candidate number only.  The markers do not know what mark the candidate scored on the application form. Markers do not have any other information whatsoever available to them other than the written case study itself.  Applicants will be asked to produce an Opinion (between 1,500 - 2,000 words depending on the exercise). The Opinion must be your own unaided work; if we discover you have had any assistance, you will immediately be disqualified.
	3. Use and application of rules to factual situations to produce accurate assessments	7	5 marks for identifying 5 specific points of difficulty arising out of the legal/factual scenario provided. The 5 points of difficulty have been identified and are provided to markers in advance - 1 mark per point.	As stated in "Award of Marks"			Candidates invited to participate in this round will be provided with a template to use in producing their document, and clear instructions will be given as to expected content. Candidates are also provided with an extract from the relevant legal textbook, where appropriate. The intention of Keating's process is to assess skills/ability and not knowledge of the law and candidates will be asked to keep citation of authority to a minimum.
			2 marks available for overall correctness of advice given.	As stated in "Award of Marks"			Keating does not publish the "Material features" or the "Specific points of difficulty" lists (referred to in the Mark Scheme) to candidates because they themselves analyse the materials, identify relevant points, apply rules to factual situations and identify accurate assessments: in other words, they tell candidates both the answer(s) and how to go about providing it/them. However, these lists are standardised prior to any assessment taking place.
4. Ability to think and respond under pressure	Inc above	Included in marks above				All candidates will be given 10 days to produce their document. On a discretionary basis and subject to logistical constraints, this time may be extended whether in individual cases or generally to all candidates. If any candidate requires a reasonable adjustment to be made for any disability, please do contact us (contact details will be given in the letter inviting candidates to participate in this round).
