Practice Overview

Callum is a commercial practitioner specialising in disputes arising from construction, engineering, energy, IT, infrastructure and offshore/marine projects. Acting as either sole counsel or as junior counsel in larger legal teams, he is engaged in both international and domestic work and particularly relishes disputes involving complex engineering issues. Callum is a contributor to Keating on Construction Contracts and Keating on Offshore Construction and Marine Engineering Contracts, as well as writing for the Construction Law Reports. He has experience with all common standard forms, including the JCT, NEC, FIDIC, IChemE and RIBA forms. He is ranked by Chambers & Partners as an 'up and coming' junior at the London construction Bar and by The Legal 500 as a 'rising star' in construction.

Callum regularly represents clients in the High Court, County Court and in adjudications in his own right. He is currently being led in international arbitration. Recent highlights include acting:

- as sole counsel in an ongoing c. £3 million professional negligence claim against a project manager in connection with a failed restaurant project (High Court, TCC);
- in an ongoing multi-million-euro international arbitration concerning the use of a pioneering anaerobic digestion technology at a waste-to-energy plant (led by Fionnuala McCredie KC and William Webb KC);
- as sole counsel in a two-day trial in the County Court at Cambridge, following which Callum's client received a substantial settlement payment prior to handing down of the judgment;
- on behalf of a public authority in a multi-million-pound adjudication and subsequent arbitration concerning the authority's entitlement to make significant deductions from a maintenance contractor's

- monthly payments under a long-term PFI contract (led by Paul Buckingham KC);
- as sole counsel in a c. £1.7 million adjudication concerning a project manager's entitlement to payment of a development profit fee, decided in favour of Callum's client;
- on behalf of a shipbuilder in two separate international arbitrations concerning the termination of two construction contracts for state-of-the-art semi-submersible offshore drilling rigs (led by Adam Constable KC, now Constable J);
- on behalf of an investment fund in TCC proceedings concerning a multi-million-pound retail and residential development, in which the fund was successful in the Court of Appeal (led by Jonathan Selby KC – see [2022] 1 WLR 878); and
- on behalf of a public authority in TCC proceedings concerning unsafe cladding and other fire safety defects in residential tower blocks (led by Simon Hughes KC).

Callum accepts instructions to advise, draft pleadings and represent clients in relation to their commercial disputes, with a focus on construction and engineering contracts and associated professional negligence matters.

Experience and Recent Cases

Advocacy

Oral

- Two-day trial in the County Court at Cambridge. The case concerned the termination of a residential building contract; a claim for unpaid invoices; and a counterclaim in respect of defective and incomplete building work. Successfully obtained (draft) judgment in favour of the defendant on the counterclaim and substantial dismissal of the claim. The case settled at the conclusion of the hearing, before the judgment was formally handed down.
- CCMC (High Court, TCC). Successfully obtained relief from sanctions in respect of the late filing of the claimant's costs budget – see [2023] Costs LR1025.
- Application for an extension of time for service of the Claim Form (High Court, TCC). Successfully resisted the application on behalf of the defendant, securing a tactical victory for the client – see [2021] EWHC 972 (TCC).
- Application for specific disclosure (High Court, TCC). Successfully resisted the application, which was dismissed.
- Application for a stay of proceedings pursuant to section 9 of the Arbitration Act 1996 (High Court, Commercial Court). Successfully obtained the order sought, together with a costs order in favour of the client.

Successfully resisted the defendants' application for permission to rely on the expert evidence of a building surveyor and obtained significant reductions in the defendants' costs budgets (c. 40% in respect of some phases).
- Appeared on behalf of the defendant insurer in a series of fast- and multi-track trials concerning claims by highway repair contractors for the costs of repairing damaged highway assets (County Court, various hearing centres). The trials included cross-examination of expert witnesses in the field of quantity surveying. Successfully obtained significant reductions in the quantum of damages awarded in each case (liability had been admitted, such that the only issues were quantum-related).
- Dispute Resolution Hearing (County Court at Southend). Appeared on behalf of the defendant supplier of building materials. The claim concerned allegedly defective paint supplied by the defendant. Successfully obtained a strike-out of the claim.
- Disposal hearing (County Court at Canterbury). Appeared on behalf of the claimants in a claim against a landlord for the cost of building repairs. Successfully obtained all monetary relief sought, together with a substantial costs award.
- Strike-out application (County Court at Watford). Successfully obtained dismissal of the claim on the basis of a contractual exclusion clause and limitation.
- Application to set aside default judgment (County Court at Leicester). Successfully resisted the application and associated interim charging order, further obtaining an order that the defendant pay a substantial part of the claimant's costs.
- CCMC (County Court at Central London). Successfully obtained substantial approval of the claimant's costs budget and several reductions in the defendant's costs budget.
- Final hearing (County Court at Kingston-Upon-Thames). Appeared on behalf of the defendant and successfully obtained dismissal of the claim, which concerned business interruption losses.

struck out for failure to serve a directions questionnaire on time.

Successfully obtained a settlement of the action for a fraction of the amount claimed.

- Advised a claimant property company on the correct procedure for service of the claim form and Particulars of Claim in circumstances where the claimant's solicitor had intended to serve the claim form himself but by default the court had served the claim form instead, and had mistakenly served all three defendants at the same address. Drafted correspondence on behalf of the claimant's solicitor which regularised the procedural position and obviated the need to make any application to the court.
- Drafted pleadings (High Court, TCC), advised on contractual issues and attended a mediation on behalf of a public authority seeking to recover the costs of instituting the largest evacuation in the UK since WWII, necessitated by unsafe cladding and internal fire stopping defects in five high-rise tower blocks in London (led by Simon Hughes KC). - Advised a groundworks subcontractor on its prospective claim against a main contractor for costs incurred in repairing a warehouse floor slab.
- Advised a glazing subcontractor on (a) whether it had formed a binding contract with a main contractor, (b) the terms of that contract and (c) whether those terms permitted adjudication.
